Formals

1	Joanne Schmitz My name is Joanne (Kuhlman) Schmitz. I belonged to Leipsic Liberty Bells 4-H group in the 50s	Ottawa, Ohio	1959	Formal Dress "Formal Dress" project that I made in 1959. Also got an A and second place in Putnam county fair. Have these ribbons also. Good condition. It was made from a Vogue Paris original pattern. Have this pattern also. Material is chiffon - lime green. Very full gathered skirt with back godset sections joins the bodice at waistline. Neckline is high at front extending almost to the waistline at back. Short kimono sleeves. 16 years old making this project. I wore it to my Junior-Senior prom in 1960.
2	Mary Lou Longworth	Orrville, Ohio	1964	Strapless Formal Strapless floor length formal is made of light blue 100% chromspun acetate. The fitted bodice is Shirred across the bust. The full skirt features a bustle on the back. It can be worn with or without the light blue sleeveless lace top which snaps at back neckline. Cost to make $17.23, not including the lace.
3	Marleen Grant	Alliance, Ohio	1956	Wedding Dress It is a princess style dress, made of lace over taffeta. The headpiece is no longer available.
4	Gretchen Weaver	Columbus, Ohio	1968	Gown Formal Wear - floor length gown. Sheer white with embroidered roses over pink lining. 1968-1972
5	Regina Neer	Batavia, Ohio	1968	Silk Formal Dress Up Clothes - Turquoise silk long formal with silver threads woven in the designs. It is made from a silk sari that I purchased in India when my family traveled around the world on the way home from living 2 years in Truk, an island about 500 miles from Guam. The sleeveless dress has a stand up collar, an empire waist, and princess seams in the straight skirt. The dress is underlined and lined. The zipper is put in by hand. The white and metallic silver satin brocade coat has the same stand up collar, princess seams, and is fully lined in white satin. The frog closures are Chinese frogs, made from the satin brocade. Both are in excellent condition - the dress has some separation in the fabric at the zipper and seams from stress and is slightly discolored under the arms. I have the original Vogue pattern for the dress, and the long leather gloves. It won first place in the county and I completed at State Fair (background in the pictures), but did not place.
6	Judy Snyder	Jefferson, Ohio	1974	Formal Gown Gown with parasol to match; worn for wedding and prom; won outstanding of the day with the garment. 1974-1975

7	Nancy Humphrey	Ada	1977	Bicentennial Gown
8	Cherie Smith	Wooster, Ohio	1978	Prom Dress & Quilted Jacket This floor length Gunne Sax dress has a fitted bodice string long skirt with a wide ruffle around the bottom. It is accented with white lace and satin ribbon. The jacket is a waist length quilted straight style. It was machine quilted. It took many hours to quilt. It is finished with white satin around the edges. It is a dark blue cotton fabric with red, pink and tan small flowers. Approximately size Misses 6-8.
9	Lynn Boynton Harting	Lucasville	1975	Gown Blue and white hook skirt gown with parasol for formal wear – this gown is gorgeous. Late 1970s to early 80s
10	Heather Geib Shinsky	Apple Creek, Ohio	1987	Wine Formal Wine, moiré taffeta. Floor length, semi-fitted, lined bodice with front inset and double ruffles (one ruffle of fabric with overlay ruffle of antique cream lace). Flared skirt with side panels edged with double ruffle of fabric and lace. Received outstanding at Wayne County Style Show and State Fair.
11	Stephanie Musselman Member of State 4-H Fashion Board – 1986-87	Pataskala, Ohio	1984	Red Formal Strapless, long sheath with net detachable overskirt with flowers.
12	Melissa Werstler	Wooster, Ohio	1994	Formal Silk screened pig suede with a purple and black taffeta tea-length skirt. Dress was designed from 3 patterns. Won outstanding of day at Wayne County Style Revue
13	Mary Beth Harp	Bucyrus, Ohio	1996	Sequin Gown
14	Whitney Martinko	Boston, Massachusetts	2000	Celery Gown I made this gown in 2000 for the Dress Up Formal project and wore it to the Chillicothe High School Prom that year. I also wore it to events that I attended as the 2000 Ross County Junior Fair Queen. I designed and hand-beaded the beadwork on the bodice. The dress features princess seams, a full lining and underlining, and twenty covered buttons at the back. I also made a sheer celery wrap to match.

Recent Projects

15	Whitney Martinko	Boston, Massachusetts	1998	1836 Full High Gown	I constructed this gown in 1998 from a past Patterns pattern for the Creative Costumes project. It is an authentic reproduction of a dress worn from the 1820s to approximately 1936. The fabric is 100% cotton. The dress features a bustle, piping at the neck and sleeves, a fully lined, fitted bodice, and topstitching along the waistband. I constructed the reticule and hat from detailed sketches of actual accessories worn in the mid-1830s.
16	Emily Taylor	New Albany, Ohio	1997	Fishing Outfit Clock Trophy winner at State Fair Fairfield County Best Construction Award 1st Place Active Sportswear	Overalls have flat-felled seams and double top stitching around edges. Self-made contrasting bias trim on vest. Quilted lining and genuine lamb's hide fly holder on vest. Inspired by Emily's love of fishing, an aunt suggested she make an outfit for the sport. At the time, fishing licenses had to be worn on the outside of your clothing; this is no longer the case. Outfit was reaccessorized/converted to a "Forestry Uniform" for use in the current edition of the 4-H project book Clothing for Your Career.
17	Jessica Hobeck	Edgerton, Ohio	2001	Scrubs Clothing for Your Career

Dress Up Clothes

18	Joanne Jolliff	Wooster, Ohio	1940	Dress Up Dress Button down front, rose/melon color, wool, belted, size 10
19	Ann Fisher 4-H was and you could say is still very important in my life from the time I was old enough to join. The age we could start was 10 years old, which was in 1937 for me. I belonged to the Baughman Township Girls 4-H club and had one advisor (Mrs. Paul Mengert) for all 10 years. That was as long as you could be a member. During that time I completed projects, including clothing, canning, home furnishings and flower gardening. Mary Ruth Rapp was the Wayne County 4-H extension agent and to my surprise, when my husband and I returned from our honeymoon, I had a letter from her telling me I had won a trip to the 1947 International 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Two sisters, Ruth Hahn Orr and Luella Hahn Arnold and one brother Richard Hahn also completed 10 years in the mid 1950's and 1960's when my three daughters were members of the Apple Creek True Blue 4-H Club. One of whom also became an advisor when her two daughters were in 4-H in the 1970's.	Apple Creek, Ohio	1947	Black rayon faille dress Took the original pattern and re-styled it, adding a peplum and a keyhole neckline trimmed in lace. It won first in county judging, was outstanding of the day at Ohio State Fair and earned a trip to International 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 1947. As a highlight of the Wayne County Fair's 150th anniversary in 1999, I was asked if I still had any of my projects. There was style show and exhibit for sewing projects for years gone by. Although I could no longer wear the black dress that won 1st place at the 4-H county style show and outstanding of the day at the Ohio State Fair, my granddaughter, Samantha Lang, did the honors of modeling it. What a proud moment for me!
	As I am no longer an advisor, 4-H keeps coming back to me in different ways. I now have two other granddaughters who I am helping with sewing and cooking with their 4-H projects.
	The projects that are offered now are a lot different and many more choices than when I started. Beanbags, tea towel and potholders where the things I started making. Also, canning, this is before we had freezer. But it gave me the background of how to preserve food. Home furnishing helped when I had a home of my own. And I still love to grow flowers and have a garden with fresh vegetables.
	We started with little projects and learned along the way. I'm so grateful for having the opportunity to have been a 4-H member and an advisor. So many projects that were no offered in the public school but that have helped us in our everyday life.
20	Barbara Stahl	Wooster, Ohio	1952	Dress Navy rayon faille dress with full skirt opened at the back to show navy and white plaid taffeta lining. Covered buttons and bound buttonholes go down the back opening. Jane Wyman (a movie star - Ronald Reagan's 1st wife) wore a dress in a movie that was made from this pattern so I was attracted to the pattern, but I've forgotten the name of the movie.
21	Priscilla Sprang	Shreve, Ohio	1967	Cranberry Dress Cranberry Wool Sheath Dress with black belt. Still have the pearl necklace and pin that was worn with it.

22	Karen Donley	Wooster, Ohio	1983	White wool dress with front & back tucks, ruffled collar and cuffs and a sash I made this dress in 1983 for Dress-Up Dress Daywear. I also used it for Make It with Wool. I was selected to compete at Nationals.
23	Terri Rice	Carrollton, Ohio	1980	Cream/Mauve Dress
24	Karen Stewart	Salem, Ohio	1964	Dress Dress Up Dress, blue cotton with lace. Lace has aged and discolored. Double winner in state competition in cooking and sewing
25	Virginia Allen	Apple Creek, Ohio	1972	Burgundy Velvet Dress Burgundy velvet dress with a midriff inset bordered in sequins. It has a scoop neckline and short sleeves. It won an outstanding of the day and went to Ohio State Fair in 1972.
26	Susan Heisner	Hilliard, Ohio	1967	6 Panel Shift 6 panel shirt with long sleeves and collar, made of red-orange striped wool. Has the leather gloves that were worn with it.
27	Jennifer Grube Is the mother of two young sons, and is an Associate Dean at Denison University in Granville, Ohio	Westerville, Ohio	1983	Dress Jennifer was a member of the Croton Cook & Sew Just So 4-H Club constructed this dress in 1983, during her sophomore year at Northridge High School It is a Vogue Albert Nipon Designer pattern and is made of a 100% navy wool gabardine. The dress won the 1983 Best of Show Award at the Licking County Style Review. Representing Licking County, Jennifer modeled the dress at the 1983 Ohio State Fair Fashion Review and was selected the over-all winner which resulted in a trip to the National 4-H Fashion Review during 4-H Club Congress in Chicago that fall. In Chicago, she was selected as one of the five national winners in Fashion Review and was presented with a $1000 college scholarship.
28	Cheryl Daniels	Shreve, Ohio	1966	The dress was also selected as the Ohio Make It Yourself with Wool Junior Division winner in 1983. Coat dress Wool coat dress, drop waist, robin egg blue I remember Orena Haynes and Jenny Evans liked this dress - they called me over special to look it over.
29	Bonnie Ayers	Mechanicsburg, Ohio	1970	I think it was the year I modeled this dress, I worked at the State Fair for a week helping with style revue. I loved it. No air conditioning in youth center. Wool Tweed Dress

30	Luella Arnold	Orrville, Ohio	1939	Dress up dress Was probably a size 8. Princess style bodice with dropped waist and gathered skirt. The opening down the back featured ten covered buttons and bound buttonholes. The dress is made of wool crepe and highlighted with beautiful wool hand embroidery on the front bodice.
31	Alice Billman	Wadsworth, Ohio	1972	White Wool Dress White 100% wool dress that is hand embroidered of colorful flowers down the entire front and on the long sleeves. The zipper was put in by hand in order for it not to show. The pattern for the flowers came from a Women's Day magazine. The Wayne County Historical Society would like this dress to be donated to their collection.
32	Helen Devitt	Ottoville, Ohio	1951	Suit The black faille suit was my last 4-H project so I figure it was closer to 1953 as we could be in 4-H until we were 21 years old. I had a red taffeta tiered half slip, black felt hat trimmed in grosgrain ribbon, black shoes and white gloves. Modeled at State Fair. I am sending a picture of myself in this outfit to Farmland News telling them that the suit will be at the Snowden Gallery in Campbell Hall to give the exhibit some publicity in NW Ohio.
33	Judy Berry	Shreve, Ohio	1969	Dress and Jacket This garment is made from a Vogue Courtier Design pattern. It is constructed of orange and brown 100% wool fabric purchased at Comstocks in Ashland. The short fitted jacket is fully lined and features a bias-cut collar, decorative seaming and bound buttonholes. The above the knee A-line dress is underlined. It features front in-seam pockets, side panels, front and back yokes, a neckband, and a hand picked back zipper. Won the clock trophy at State Fair.

1963 2 piece suit

I can't tell you how much fun it has been looking for the old projects...I come from a long line of pack-rats and was able to find at least one item from all ten years as a member.

A teal 2 piece suit in good condition. I have the black hat and gloves that went with it. Tailoring project

I think it is significant that I had to get the needlebook from my mom who has used it continuously for the 45 years that have passed since I made it. She left a few needles in it for display purposes but took dozens out so she has them at home to use while you borrow the project. She is a prolific crafter and seamstress and not many days have passed over the years that it book hasn't been used.

I'll take a little time to share where that first project lead me. I enjoyed 10 years as a 4-H member; completing dozens of projects, being involved as an officer of the club, and competing at the county and state level. As a direct result of my 4-H experiences, I majored in home economics in college and taught for 14 years before I became a school counselor. I also served 5 years as a cook, food service manager and retreat coordinator at Camp Lakewood (our church camp). The newest chapter of our lives finds my husband and myself starting a business of our own. We have recently purchased a beautiful house that will become our home from which we will operate a bed and breakfast, Victorian tearoom and private dining facility. One of the camp staff told me that I have the "gift of hospitality." While entertaining has always been something I love to do, I know that the paths I've chosen in life have been influenced by my years and experiences as a 4-H member.

My mom insisted that I do demonstrations for the local club and that I compete (despite my strong objections) at the county demonstration contest and style revue. I can still hear her say, "Someday you may have to speak to a group of people and this will be good for you."

As the school counselor it was my job to coordinate the end of the year awards program. For 14 years, I read names and honors for students. Each and every time I walked on the stage and took my place at the microphone in front of more than 500 students, parents and families, I could hear mom's wise words and whispered a quiet "thank you" for her wisdom and the experiences gained through 4-H.

History has a way of repeating itself. My daughter was a 9-year member in Indiana...that was only natural. The thing that touched me was when my granddaughter began her first year and I helped her with her projects. What an awesome feeling to see the exhibits with those blue ribbons attached!!! It made me remember so much and realize that ours is a died-in-the-wool 4-H family. My granddaughter is the 4th generation of the family to be involved. My mom was a member, and served 30 years as an advisor. My brothers and I all were 9 and 10-year members. My brother John is still an advisor and serves on a state council. I think jointly we have at least 100 years in 4-H as members or advisors. More importantly, it has been rich and influential part of our lives! Thanks for the opportunity to share not only my project but also some thoughts with you. I'm looking forward to traveling to Columbus to see the exhibit.

Warm regards,

Candy (Lowe) Surber

35	Joanne Jolliff	Wooster, Ohio	1940	Wool Suit
36	Joanne Schmitz	Ottawa, Ohio	1958	Wool Suit	I still have my "Tailored Clothes" project that I made in 1958. I got an A and third place in the Putnam county fair. I have these ribbons. It was a blue/green/black wool plaid suit. It is in good condition, made from a Simplicity pattern. Still have the pattern. Coat has collar, raglan sleeves, button front closing and welt pockets. 3/4 length coat. Slim skirt has soft pleats at waistline and back kick pleat. I had to do some hip alterations on the skirt after it was made. I was 15 years old when making this outfit.

First and Second Year Projects

Mrs. Gerald Graham Mother's first and second year sewing projects I would like to tell you in a few words how important 4-H has been to our family throughout the past generations. My parents were both 4-Hers and later 4-H leaders, as was my grandmother, as an assistant leader during the 1950s. My sister and I were both in 4-H. I met my husband through 4-H, and we became leaders when our 2 sons joined. Later they both married former 4-H girls. One son and his wife are now 4-H advisors. Presently we have 5 grandchildren who are avid 4-H members. 4-H has meant a lot to all of us, and it has shaped our lives in many ways. We are grateful for the many opportunities it has brought to us.	Frazeysburg, Ohio	1949	Apron Articles to Use and Wear - The apron has been used a lot, as you can see. My granddaughters love wearing it.
Judith Graham	Wooster, Ohio	1950	Tablecloth Flowered, 36" X 36", made from a feed sack. When I was a young child my parents raised turkeys, and the feed came in printed, colorful sacks. This would have been in the mid 40's, end of World War II. My father and mother would take me to the feed mill, and I got to choose what sacks I wanted. My mother would make my play clothes from these sacks. This tablecloth was made from one of those chosen feed sacks.
Helen Devitt I was in Neapolis Succeeder's Club in Lucas county. I am a Certified 4-H Master Clothing Educator.	Ottoville, Ohio	1946	Apron The chartreuse apron was a second year project. Notice it is mended on one shoulder by my mom as it got caught in the wringer of the washer. Can't imagine the hours I spent on the embroidery and hand stitch on the bias but I was an 8th grader as didn't have opportunity to be in 4-H until the 7th grade.

Nancy K. Lahmers I am delighted that my 1964 4-H project is going to be included in the Ohio 4-H Centennial Celebration.	Columbus, Ohio	1964 Apron	The apron was sewn during my first year of membership in our local 4-H club, the Green Valley Belles, in Cambridge, Ohio. I was 10 years old when I joined 4-H and I remained active in our club through high school.
In 1964, I have to admit I was much more interested in the games we would play during our weekly 4-H meetings and the cookouts that followed than in learning to sew. My mother, Catherine Lahmers, finally pushed me and helped me to complete the project in time for the Guernsey County Fair.
I have also included the Certificate of Achievement that we received for that year's membership.
You have my permission to keep all of these items permanently for any future exhibits if you would like. It appears as though I have never used this apron in 38 years, so I probably won't need it in the future.
Thanks and best wishes.
Nancy K. Lahmers Center for Excellence in Manufacturing Management Administrative Director Karma Breedlove	Jeffersonville, Ohio	1947	Tablecloth and napkins These items are made from "feed sacks".
			I remember the judge was so impressed that I had hand finished all the edges instead of machine sewing as my friends had done.
			The judge made me feel better about using feed sacks when she said "how smart for a beginner to start with more economical fabric" instead of the linen others used.
			Smart mother! Smart judge!
			I stayed in 4-H 8 more years.
Judy Wessel	London, Ohio	1950	Apron 1sr year clothing project
Lois Fowler	Big Prairie, Ohio	1950	Blue apron Second year project - It has both hand and machine stitching and is decorated with yellow rickrack. Also has the pattern I used to make it. The pattern is marked $.25 and has her dad's name on it. They picked the pattern out and ordered it and went back the next week to pick it up. The apron is in perfect condition (never used)

Pat LeFever	Smithville, Ohio	1943	Apron Blue and white cotton apron, gathered skirt with heart pockets and heart shaped bib. Trimmed with nylon ruffling, satin ribbon criss-cross straps in back with bows in front and self ties.
Nikki Conklin	Columbus, Ohio	1960	4-H fabric
Nancy K. Lahmers	Columbus, Ohio	1964	Potholder Has potholder and blue ribbon from sewing project at the Guernsey County Fair. Green paisley
Nancy Davis	New Holland, Ohio	1937	Towel & pot holder 1st year linen towel and pot holder The towel was hand stitched. If it didn't please my mom, I had to do it over. My first hand sewing. The pot holder was machine stitched. This was an electric portable machine I used. The lid locked onto the machine and you could carry it with the handle on the cover. It was heavy. The knee control was taken off to put on lid. My mother helped me but did not do any of the stitching. None of these were ever used. I'm enclosing the tag that was on the project at the fair - Belmont County - Flushing, Ohio. 1938 Table cloth & napkins 2nd year card table cloth and napkins. The card table cloth and napkins were harder and my second year project. It was a lot harder to correct if there were mistakes. I enjoyed doing the sewing. My mother made sure I had what I needed and made sure I got it done before judging.
Mary Lou Longworth	Orrville, Ohio	1958	The table cloth was used once. Cobbler Apron Cobbler apron made of ecru cotton fabric printed with flowers in yellow, orange and apple green. The apron features large pockets, is trimmed with orange seam binding and ties in the back. The original project included an apple green polished cotton blouse and was worn with a matching green skirt

Helen Devitt I was in Neapolis Succeeder's Club in Lucas county. Currently a Certified Master Clothing Educator	Ottoville, Ohio	1945	Pot holders The pot holders that look like panties and shorts (ordered from Hershner's) were a first year project. Certainly wonder why my mom encouraged this potholders which would have been "questionable" in 1945.
Mary Jane Lawrence Elsass	Bowing Green, Ohio	1934	Tea Towel and Stand Cover First project. A green and white linen tea towel and an off-white embroidered small stand cover.
Mrs. Gerald Graham	Frazzysburg, Ohio	1949	Tea Towel "Let's Sew" - linen tea towel. Excellent condition
Marleen Grant	Alliance, Ohio	1951	Other items A pot holder made by Marleen Mani Grant in 1951 or 1952. Marleen also has available some 4-H pins from the 1950s. A sewing book distributed by the county office in the 1950s is also available.
Judy Berry	Shreve, Ohio	1961	Tea Towel Tea towel - made of linen, is hand hemmed with the slipstitch
Ethel Lois Smith	Berlin Heights, Ohio	1936	Huck towel Huck Towel for "Let's Sew" and project book
Helen Devitt	Oftoville, Ohio	1945	Tea Towel The towel was a first year project and I was in Neapolis Succeeder's Club in Lucas county.
Anita Rennecker	Smithville, Ohio	1947	T ea Towel, Hot Pan Holder Red & white gingham pot holder has white "blanket" button hole stitching edging. Tea towel is white linen with a fruit & floral print (basically red). Then we did hand hemming.
		1948	Luncheon Tablecloth & apron Luncheon set was a white indianhead fabric 42" X 42" cloth and 4 napkins all with narrow hand hem edges. Apron was blue dotted Swiss with white ric-rack. The bib part and pockets were heart shaped. The skirt part was large scalloped. Rick-rack was attached so half of it showed on the right side of the skirt, pockets and bib.
Annabell Mechling	Thornville, Ohio	1930	Laundry Bag
Mary Jane Lawrence Elsass	Bowing Green, Ohio	1934	Dresser Scarf First project. Blue and white linen hem stitched dresser scarf.
Marleen Grant	Alliance, Ohio	1936	Socks
Stacey Sandfoss	Milford, Ohio	1986	Blouse & Culottes Topping Your Outfit - Yellow and white stripe cotton blouse, yellow culottes of rayon, silk and polyester with side pockets. Have project book. 16 years old. Condition: Excellent
Cherie Smith	Wooster, Ohio	1972	Top to Toe Project Green print, skirt, headscarf, tote
Janet Wasko Myers	London, Ohio	1969	Shift & Kerchief

Ann Ball Made a lot of wool garments for Make It with Wool, can still wear a couple of them. 20 year 4-H advisor.	Mason, Ohio	1969	Dress	Shift type dress, sleeveless, blue floral print, fully lined, with a coordinating ruffle down the center front. First dress made for 4-H, probably in 1969 or 70. Also in good condition.
Ethel Lois Smith	Berlin Heights, Ohio	1936	Linen bag	"Let's Sew" project - linen bag with cross stitch design which may have been a requirement of her advisor for the project
Barbara Stahl	Wooster, Ohio	1944	Pincushion

1	Carolyn Bender Member of Ruslin Hills Sticherettes, in Tuscarawas county.	Fremont, Ohio	1973	Formal Dress Formal Dress. Made for Senior Prom.
2	Marsha Rader	Clyde, Ohio	1975	Suit with skirt and pants This outfit was made for Clothes for School. This outfit is made of a polyester gabardine. The pants and jacket were made for 4-H project. The skirt was made at the same time but not judged because I used stitch witchery in the hem. The flowered shirt and watercolored shirt are both silky fabrics, but I'm not sure what. The shirts are the same pattern and both have a large pointed collar and french cuffs. The jacket belts in the back. The pant legs are wide. I made this to wear on my Senior Class trip.
3	Sandy McDaniels	Edison, Ohio	1950	4-H Uniform Official 4-H uniform she made from green and white stripe fabrics. It is a two piece skirt and top with a dickey that snaps on and off.
4	Susan Heisner	Hilliard, Ohio	1970	4-H Uniform
5	Christine Kibler Dambach Her interest in sewing and 4-H lasted throughout her life. She was an advisor for her daughter's club, The Flint Stitches, in Franklin County in the 1950s and she taught Home Economics at Perry Middle School, Worthington, Ohio. She also enjoyed making clothes and toys for her family. In her later years, she made chemo caps and toys for Children's Hospital. 4-H was also a very important part of Christine's life for personal reasons. She met her husband, Dr. Charles A. Dambach, through 4-H and her children all grew up as 4-Hers. Her granddaughter, Lisa, was a member of the Orange Trojans and Hare Raisers in Delaware County and now her great granddaughter, Kimberly, is the fifth generation of the family to be involved in 4-H, being a member of the Cool Clovers in Morrow County. Christine's mother, Bertha Kibler, was the advisor of her club, Burton Handy Hands, in Geauga County. She wrote the attached article and delivered it as a radio address on WTAM, Cleveland in December of 1930. The article addresses some of the same issues we are concerned with today, namely keeping kids busy and thereby out of trouble, and motivating kids to do their best.
